

Maria Brookhouser
Director, Father Flanagan League Society of Devotion
Boys Town National Alumni Association Appointee

Professional & Education:

Maria Brookhouser is honored with the fact that she had the opportunity to be a homemaker. Her other professional endeavors include serving as a Para Professional with Omaha Public Schools at Columbian Elementary School where her emphasis was in technology. She also served as the Coordinator for Academic and Student Affairs at Creighton University's School of Pharmacy and Health Professions. Maria earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Biology from Lynchburg College, Virginia.

Community & Philanthropy:

Maria currently serves on the governing board of the Omaha Symphony. She is a past president of the Metropolitan Omaha Medical Society Auxiliary, and was their volunteer of the year in 1991-92. She spent 25 years as a volunteer and several years as a team captain, with the Henry Doorly Zoo Membership Drive. Her other community service activities include the American Lung Association of Nebraska Family Asthma Program, member of the Assistance League of Omaha and involved for several years with the Parent Teacher Association for Columbian Elementary School in Omaha.

Faith & Ministry:

Roman Catholic. She is a member of the Equestrian Order of the Knights of the Holy Sepulcher and serves on the Archdiocese of Omaha Committee for Development.

Family & Personal:

Maria was born in Virginia and moved to Omaha in 1978 from Richmond Virginia. She and her late husband Walter have 2 children (twins). Walter O'Donohue is a former Chairman of Internal Medicine at Creighton University and as well a former director of Pulmonary Care there. Maria and the late Patrick Brookhouser were wed in 2009 after the passing of their spouses, Walter and Judy respectively.