

Deacon Omar F. A. Gutiérrez, M.A.
Father Flanagan League Society of Devotion
Archdiocese of Omaha Appointee

Professional and Education

Omar is currently serving as the Special Assistant to Archbishop George J. Lucas, the Archbishop of Omaha. His background includes teaching the full range of children, youth and adults, as well as administration for a Catholic Classical Academy in La Crosse, Wisconsin.

Omar earned a B.A. in Theology from the Franciscan University of Steubenville, Ohio in 1997 and then continued with graduate studies in theology and philosophy at the Pontifical University of St. Thomas Aquinas (the Angelicum) in Rome, Italy. He finished his graduate studies in 2006 with an M.A. in Theology from the University of Dallas, Texas.

Community Service & Philanthropy

Omar is serving as the head of the Social Ministry Commission for the Archdiocese of Omaha. He is a member of the Pastoral Council for St. Peter's Parish and active in several ministry efforts around the archdiocese, particularly men's ministry. He is also an advisor to the Board of Sancta Familia Medical Apostolate.

Faith & Ministry

Raised in the Catholic Faith since infancy, Omar has a passion for the faith which drives his desire to teach it to others. He is an ordained deacon, and regular instructor on Catholic theology in the Omaha area. He is a regular guest on the Spirit Morning Show on Spirit Catholic Radio, as well as the author of an audio series on the social doctrine of the Church.

Family

Omar has been happily married to his wife Miriam since August of 2004. They have been blessed by God with three children.
