

Elaine Westendorf Martin
Director, Father Flanagan League Society of Devotion
Devotional Council Appointee

Professional & Education:

Elaine is a graduate of Duchesne College (B.A. cum laude), Creighton University (M.A., J.D. cum laude). She has taught in St. Louis and Omaha and then practiced law with her husband, Dennis Martin until his death in 2005, and continuing to her retirement in 2009.

Community & Philanthropy:

Elaine has been involved with Christ Child Society since her college days and has been honored to serve on the boards of Duchesne Academy, Creighton Preparatory Jesuit High School, the Poor Clare Sisters of Omaha (fundraising), Omaha Symphony Governing Board, and has been involved in many other religious and civic philanthropic ventures.

Faith & Ministry:

She is a Eucharistic Minister and a past circle leader and choir member of St. Robert Bellarmine Church.

Family & Personal:

Elaine's interests include duplicate bridge, traveling, and spending time with her two children and their families.