

Elizabeth Sondag

Board Member, Father Flanagan League Society of Devotion

Professional & Education:

Elizabeth Sondag was born and raised in Hastings, Nebraska. She earned her Bachelor of Arts in Politics with minors in Philosophy and Theology with a Pastoral Ministry Certificate in May of 2007 from The Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C. where she graduated Summa Cum Laude. She later attended Franciscan University of Steubenville in Steubenville, Ohio where she completed her Graduate Studies in Theology and then returned to The Catholic University of America where she received her Licentiate in Canon Law in May of 2016. Elizabeth currently serves as a Marriage Nullity Advocate for both the Metropolitan Tribunal of the Archdiocese of St. Paul & Minneapolis and the Tribunal of the Diocese of Fargo. She also served as Tribunal Official for the Metropolitan Tribunal of the Archdiocese of Omaha until recently when she stepped into the role of Tribunal Judge.

Community and Philanthropy:

In addition to serving on the Board of Directors for the Father Flanagan League, Elizabeth is a member of the Fraternity of Communion and Liberation with the International Lay Association of the Faithful. She is also a Committee Member with the Laity Committee of the Canon Law Society of America and a member of the Canon Law Society of America.

Faith & Ministry:

Elizabeth volunteers a great deal of her time with the St. Vincent de Paul Society of the St. Peter Catholic Church in Omaha, Nebraska, as well as serving as a Faith Formation Catechist with St. Cecilia Cathedral. Elizabeth is also an RCIA TEAM member with St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church.

Family & Personal:

Elizabeth Sondag was appointed Vice Chancellor for the Archdiocese of Omaha on December 1, 2018. She also serves as a Tribunal Judge.